Last Week's Program

Spartanburg High School football Coach Chris Miller told us some of the principles that he has instituted at the football program at Spartanburg High that have contributed to their success. One was to make sure they have all the "wheels on the bus": academic, spiritual, social and athletic. He places a strong emphasis on development of youth and community service.

FUN FACTS

Sean Dardeau

Been married to Karen Dardeau for 21 years. Two children Sean Terry (12) and Cecelia Caroline (9). Two dogs - Dixie and Bama. Grew up in Tazewell, Virginia. Attended King College (Bristol, Tennessee) and Averett College (Graduate) (Danville, Virginia). My favorite room in the house is the garage - like to work on my hot rod (1969 Camaro SS/RS) Like to hunt birds. Time spent with family at the lake is one of my favorite activities. Fan of the Oklahoma Sooners. My son is an Alabama Fan and we went to the Sugar Bowl last year. Oklahoma beat Alabama, it was a quiet ride home.

Mary Mathes

I moved to Spartanburg in 1997 from Valparaiso, Indiana (Go Valpo!) after being recruited for a position at Spartanburg Regional. My husband Bazil and I purchased a downtown condo and have been loving being city dwellers for over five years. I call myself a late bloomer having completed both my bachelors degree and masters degree after the age of 40. My 15 minutes of fame came when I was in the movie Slap Shot with Paul Newman in Johnstown, PA. Actually, I was an extra but saw Paul up close for two days and one night. Yep, he was very handsome. I'm a big walker and in 2014 I'm proud to say I have walked two half-marathon competitions and am looking for another.
