

Welcome To Rotary

Tuesday
September 29, 2015

Today's Program

Today's Song: My Country 'tis of Thee - Harry Morris

Today's Invocation: Frank Lee

Health & Happiness: William Gray

Today's Program: New Member Talks - Bryan Burnett, David Ward and Derrick Smith

Last Week's Program

John Franklin presented our program last week on the National Museum of African American History and Culture (NMAAHC), which will be the 19th museum for the Smithsonian Institute, scheduled to open on the Washington Mall in the Fall of 2016. NMAAHC is dedicated to the collection, preservation, research, and exhibition of African American historical and cultural material reflecting the breadth and depth of the experiences of individuals of African descent living in the United States.

Upcoming Programs

Oct. 6 Tryon International Equestrian Center
- Molly Oakman

Oct. 13 Update on District 7 technology, facilities, and academics - Russell Booker

FUN FACTS

Jim Reilly

I was born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio (home of Skyline Chili!). I think the most interesting fun fact that I can offer is my family. I am the second oldest of 8 boys, and six of my seven brothers are physicians. My mother has 45 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren! My wife (Cile) and I have been married for 31 years, and we have three beautiful daughters and two grandchildren (so far!). I played football at Duke from 1974-77, and led the team in tackles (137) my junior year, which was second on the all time list at that time. I also played rugby after my football days were through. I received my Masters degree in Health Administration at Duke, and worked in that field for 20 years before moving to Spartanburg in 2000 and starting my career in printing at Minuteman Press, where I enjoy working along side with my wife.

John Franklin with Judy Bynum and President Todd Stephens

Welcome New Members

Travis Sutton
American Credit Acceptance

Justin Schrumpf
Precision Chiropractic