Today's Program

Today's Song: My Country Tis of Thee - Don Woodward

Today's Invocation: Frank Lee

Health & Happiness: William Gray

Today's Program: Improving South Carolina's Roads
- Jason Zacher, Upstate Chamber Coalition

Last Week's Program

One of our newest members, Scott Cochran, President of Spartanburg Methodist College, presented our program last week on The Decline of a Company. He told us about the factors that lead to the unrecognized decline of Yahoo from a $140B company in 1994 to a $35B company. Those factors included poor internal communications, not listening to talented employees, hiring mediocre talent and poor leadership.
