Tuesday
September 6, 2016

Today's Program

Today's Song: This is My Country - Dick Conn

Today's Invocation: Yossi Liebowitz

Health & Happiness: Stephanie Burton

Today's Program: Ballet Spartanburg - Teresa Hough

Last Week's Program

Last week we enjoyed a presentation from the overall winners of the 2016 Piedmont Region III Science Fair, Ian Kusher and Devin Srivastava. These students from Spartanburg Day School will represent our region very well in the Intel International Science and Engineering Fair (ISEF). The Intel International Science and Engineering Fair is the world's largest international pre-college science competition, providing an annual forum for more than 1,700 high school students from over 70 countries.

Rotary International Convention
June 10-14, 2017
Atlanta, Georgia

The Rotary International Convention 2017 is in Atlanta, June 10-14, 2017. Being in Atlanta, it is a rare opportunity to attend an International Convention. It would be nice to have a good delegation from Spartanburg in attendance.

Some reasons why you should attend:

1. Meet the most inspiring people in the world
Rotary members from more than 130 countries meet at the convention every year. This is your unique opportunity to connect with old friends, make new ones, and share stories about your club's current and future projects.

2. Strengthen your club and your passion for Rotary
The general sessions and breakout sessions offer countless ways to help you get the most from your Rotary membership and make your club stronger. In the House of Friendship, you'll find new ideas, learn best practices, and share project successes — it's where the Rotary world comes together!

Centennial Clock Dedication

Parking will be on your own or in the Spartanburg Community College parking lot. The social will begin at 5:30pm and last until 7:30. Dedication of the clock will be at 5:45. Cocktails and food will be available at the Upstate Art Gallery across the street from the clock dedication on Liberty Street and the Denny Plaza.
